

Banking Industry in Barbados

Fair Trading Commission

As part of its continual assessment of the state of competition within the local economy, the Fair Competition Division of the Fair Trading Commission (“Commission”) is conducting a short survey on the Banking Industry in Barbados with a view to collating your opinions regarding the factors that affect competition in the banking industry.

To facilitate this analysis the Commission is seeking your assistance in responding to the questions in this online questionnaire. Your participation is very important to us as the feedback provided will allow us to generate greater insights of the nature and extent of competition in the aforementioned market. There is no right or wrong answer to the questions in this questionnaire; we just want to hear your views. Please be reminded that all responses will be held in the strictest of confidence and no comments will be attributed to any individual in the writing of the final report.
