

What is exclusive dealing?

Exclusive dealing is a practice prohibited by the Act where a manufacturer as a condition of supplying a product imposes conditions of sale requiring an independent dealer to:

- deal primarily in goods identified by the supplier or
- stop dealing a specific good or service other than that offered by the supplier