

What is Price Fixing?

Price fixing occurs where businesses that should otherwise be in competition with each other, come together and agree to fix or maintain the price of goods or services that they supply.