

In seeking a merger what do I do?

Enterprises that are considering the effecting of a merger should file an application with the Commission completing the requisite forms. Companies will be required to provide general information on:

- the background of the companies involved,
- the type of merger whether acquisition, combination or otherwise,
- the product and geographic markets affected and
- the nature of competition before and after the merger in the markets affected.