

Does the Fair Competition Act apply only to big businesses?

Fair competition means that all businesses have the right and freedom to compete. The Commission intends to promote competition amongst all businesses irrespective of the sizes of the businesses involved.